

Level 3 Certificate in Occupational Health and Safety

QSP are an accredited City and Guilds assessment centre offering a range of Health and Safety qualifications.

Who is it for?

For people who already work with health and safety procedures within an organisation of any size - whether managers, supervisors or staff. It is for individuals who are looking to seek and gain certification to prove their competency in their role.

How does it Work?

The assessment is undertaken at the candidate's own site by an Awarding Body approved Assessor. This causes minimum disruption to the candidate's day to day work load which can occur with alternative training programmes where the candidate leaves site to be trained in a classroom setting.

The award includes for the candidate to build a portfolio of evidence which is then assessed against a nationally recognised standard and has the added benefit of being transferable between market sectors.

What will I Gain?

On successful completion of this qualification, candidates are issued a Certificate of Achievement along with their portfolio which has recorded their achievement to keep as a reference.

What are the Benefits?

- ✓ Understanding of how to provide a safe working environment
- ✓ Improved awareness and training to reduce accidents at work
- ✓ Achievement of a nationally recognised qualification
- ✓ Contribution to the safe working practices of the organisation
